

THE RAILWAY WORLD.

THE LATEST ELEVATED ELECTRIC RAILWAY SCHEME.

The Speed to Be One Hundred Miles an Hour—Favorable Showing of Minnesota's Railroads—Houston Division Conductors.

Two or three days in Houston, left Sunday night for San Antonio.

J. G. Cutting, night yardmaster of the International and Great Northern, was one of the sufferers from the all-prevailing grippe this past week, but is out again.

Ticket Agent Courtney has the Katy's city ticket office artistically ornamented with sprays of holly this week, owing to the near approach of Christmas holidays.

The International and Great Northern pay car came in from Palestine yesterday and after liquidating with the employees here went to Galveston, to perform the same service.

Conductor Shearer, who has been sick for some time, is out again and will be able to resume his run on the International and Great Northern midday after in a day or two.

General Manager Campbell of the International and Great Northern, will arrive in Houston this morning and spend the day here attending to business matters connected with the road.

The city ticket agents of the different lines in Houston were busy selling holiday excursion tickets yesterday. Today is the beginning of the Christmas excursion season to points outside of the State.

Geo. D. Hunter, city ticket agent of the International and Great Northern, has returned from a trip through the southern and eastern portions of the State, where he has been working up holiday business for his line. He states that the prospects for this class of passenger traffic is very good indeed and, of course, the "Old Reliable" will secure her share of it.

Late Appointments.

W. E. Knox has been promoted to the superintendency of the Alabama Mineral division of the Louisville and Nashville.

A. H. Johnson, vice president of the Arkansas Mineral, has been chosen president of that road, to take effect January 1, in place of John J. Horner.

Timothy Johnson, formerly city ticket agent of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas at Galveston, has been appointed traveling passenger agent of that road, with headquarters at Brownsville.

J. W. Searles, live stock agent of the Great Northern at Great Falls, Mont., has been appointed traveling freight agent of that road, with headquarters at St. Paul, Minn., to take effect January 1, in place of G. O. Lewis.

H. A. Young, car accountant of the Mexican Central, has been appointed superintendent of transportation of that road, with headquarters at the city of Mexico, in place of E. O. Lewis, resigned, and the office of car accountant has been abolished.

General Notes.

Western lines will during 1894 issue clerical men's suits and uniforms under the same conditions as this year.

The Mobile and Ohio was unsuccessful in its attempt to induce Western roads to join it in making landowners' excursion rates.

The Panhandle has notified connections that it will refuse to accept intoxicants for shipment, to Mississippi, the supreme court of that State having declared such shipments illegal.

Richard Lord, formerly general passenger agent of the Fort Scott and Rio Grande railroad, has accepted the position of general manager of the cotton house of George McFadden of Fort Worth.

A train load of ninety cars of Texas cattle left New Orleans over the Louisville and Nashville railroad a few days ago en route to Cincinnati. This is an unusually long shipment of this kind.

H. J. Lyons, the Southern Pacific's general freight agent at New Orleans, is in El Paso, where he will remain a few weeks to recuperate.

E. J. Martin, general passenger agent of the San Antonio and Aransas Pass, is arranging to run excursions from Waco and Houston to San Antonio some time next month. The fare for the round trip will be about $2.50.

It is stated on the best authority that both the Vanderbilt and Pennsylvania lines will, with the taking effect of the spring rates, put on twenty-hour trains between New York and Chicago, and much faster trains between New York and St. Louis via Indianapolis.

A. Frazer, president of the Northwestern railway, died at Charleston, S. C., last week, aged 72 years. He had been president of the Northwestern ever since its construction.

The guaranteed cure for all headaches is Brown's Seltzer—trial bottle 10 cts.

Cotton Receipts.

The railroads brought cotton into Houston yesterday as follows:

Bales.
San Antonio and Aransas Pass	1,200
Southern Pacific	1,000
Missouri, Kansas and Texas	800
International and Great Northern	400
Colorado and Santa Fe	200
Union Pacific	100
Grand Total	3,700

Officials Visit Huntsville.

Huntsville, Texas, December 18.—General Manager Campbell and Superintendent Allen visited Huntsville today, coming in the pay car. Their visit was not known until the afternoon, when they had called on them. It is not known if the visit had any significance, but it is probable the chief of the Huntsville branch visited Huntsville had something to do with the party only remained here a few days.

Cattle Inspected.

United States Stock Inspector Sadler in statement in the government office reports that 12,411 cars of Southern cattle were inspected by him at Parsons during the year, which was in 1892, from February 15 to November 15. All of these cattle were shipped over the Missouri, Kansas and Texas.

Conductors to Meet.

A special meeting of the Houston Division of the Order of Railway Conductors will be held next Saturday, December 23, at 10 a. m.

Considerable business of importance to the order is to be transacted on this occasion, and all the members are earnestly requested to be present.
